Dear Thao:

I filed the captioned applications on October 17th. With each application, I included a Credit Card Authorization authorizing debiting of my personal American Express credit card. My credit card has accordingly been charged (on Oct. 23rd, I think).

The client has just informed me, however, that it will not reimburse me for fees I pay directly. The client does not want to abandon these applications, however. Thus, please:

1. Refund the fees paid to my credit card.
2. Notify the Office of Initial Patent Examination (Ms. Cynthia Streater) that the filing fees were refunded and thus remain unpaid. OIPE will then send out a Notice To File Missing Parts, requesting payment of the filing fees. The client will then be able to pay the filing fees directly.

Many thanks for your help,

Mark Pohl
